CODE OF CONDUCT

1. The details of all bands and a responsible member representing each band shall be included in the application form.
2. Sufficient stewards and marshals shall be present to ensure that participants comply with directions.
3. The Chief Steward's details shall be provided on the application form and all stewards and marshals shall be easily identifiable.
4. The organiser and Chief Steward shall identify his/herself to the Police Officer in charge at the commencement of the procession.
5. The instructions of the Police shall be obeyed.
6. Organisers shall assist the Police in ensuring that passage is allowed for traffic and pedestrians.
7. The processionists, including marshals, shall not march more than four abreast and shall keep to the near or left hand side of the street except one-way streets where they will keep to the right hand side.
8. If required, the Police Officer in charge may decide to split the procession into sections to avoid serious disruption to traffic.
9. No obstruction shall be caused.
10. No halberds or weapons of any description shall be carried.
11. The terms of the Public Order Act 1936 in relation to the prohibition of the wearing of uniforms signifying association with any political organisations, etc., shall be observed.
12. No band shall play before 7.30a.m. or later than 9.00p.m.
13. The band or bands taking part shall cease to play when approaching and passing places of worship.
14. The conditions of Section 62 of the Control of Pollution Act 1974 in relation to the use of loudspeakers shall be observed.
15. No cause for complaint shall be given.
16. The organiser shall be responsible for ensuring that these conditions are brought to the notice of persons, bodies and bands participating.
