1.	Noting uncertainties over the UK Government's intentions with the £37½m Levelling Up Fund Round 3 joint award to North and South Ayrshire, and the impact withdrawal of this would have not only on the specific projects it was to fund but also a knock-on impact on the capital funds it would free up to revitalise Ayr town centre, could you please advise what representations the Administration has made to the UK Government to help secure this vital funding?	In terms of specific 'representations' from the current Administration of South Ayrshire Council. Councillor Martin Dowey, Leader of the Council, wrote to Michael Gove, former Housing Secretary, in December 2023 seeking support in consideration of a round 3 bid by South Ayrshire Council
