

movement, and we remain cautiously optimistic that improvements will be realised in the near future.

We are always looking to welcome new members to the Community Council. Fresh voices and ideas are essential to keeping our work relevant and effective, and we encourage anyone with an interest in local matters to consider getting involved.

As always, I would like to thank the members of the council and the wider Community for their continued support and commitment. We look forward to building on this year's efforts and addressing the challenges ahead.
