PASS IT ON PROJECT

1 in 5 homeless people that are provided with accommodation in Ayrshire, end up homeless again after as little as six months.

Sometimes that can be for the want of the basic necessities needed to turn a roof over their head into a home that feels like a liveable, comforting place; something better than what they have come from.

In just 18 months “Pass it on” has helped over a hundred clients and now has over 200 items in the pipeline thanks to the generosity of the people of South Ayrshire.

Due to Coronavirus the project was halted. However, this is now up and running, accepting much needed donations to restock their warehouse. Items such as;

- White Goods - fridge freezers, electric cookers, microwaves, toasters, kettles, washing machines etc.
- Pots & Pans
- Hoovers
- Single/Double Beds & Mattresses
- Wardrobes
- Chests of Drawers
- Bedside Cabinets
- Rugs

Additional health & safety protocols required to keep our service users, donors and staff safe have been put in place. Everything we pass on needs to meet all the current legal standards for fire and safety, white goods are electrically tested and items will be cleaned and repaired to be fit for a home before it is passed on.

Many of our clients have young children, mobility issues or are unable to source the goods or organise physical transport. Often we help clients with no local family, friends or funds, and they are very grateful for any donations received.

Winter Safety

in and around your home

During the winter months, we all try to keep ourselves warm at home. However, it is essential that we make sure our homes are healthy, safe and protected. Follow our top tips to ensure you remember this winter for all the right reasons.

PREVENTING BURST PIPES

Burst pipes can cause significant and costly damage to your home and possessions. To avoid this:

- * Make sure you know where your Stopcock and Sure Stop are.
- * Check your water Stopcock and Sure Stop are working properly.
- * Keep your home warm whenever possible, even when it is unoccupied.
- * Make sure there are no draughts from outside, especially near water pipes.
- * Keep windows closed in unheated parts of your home.
- * Ensure you know where - and how - to switch off your electricity and heating safely.

HEAT YOUR HOME SAFELY

We check the safety of your gas appliances every year, but if you smell gas, think you have a gas leak, or are worried that fumes containing carbon monoxide are escaping from a gas appliance, call the free National Gas emergency line immediately on 0800 111 999.

If you have a solid fuel heating system (wood, coal etc):

- ❄ Have your chimney swept twice a year to reduce the risk of a chimney fire.

- ❄ Do not sit too close to fires or heaters - your clothing or furniture could catch fire.
- ❄ Always use a fireguard with open fires, especially if you have young children, elderly or disabled people in the property. The fireguard should preferably be in a fixed position.

If you use a portable heater to boost the heat in your home, make sure you keep it clean and well maintained. If you have stored the heater away over the spring and summer months, make sure you thoroughly clean off any dust before use.

To keep yourself and your family safe, we also recommend you have a carbon monoxide detector in your home.

If you are over 60, disabled or on a low income, you may be able to get financial help with heating your home. Contact the Energy Agency on 01292 521896 for further information.

PREPARE FOR SEVERE WEATHER CONDITIONS

During winter, we can experience severe disruption to our daily routine. Here are some tips to help you prepare for severe weather conditions:

- ❄ Check the batteries in your torch are working and have some emergency lighting handy in preparation for a power cut.
- ❄ Report any lighting faults immediately.
- ❄ Be sure you have some warm shoes or boots with non-slip soles.
- ❄ Keep a mixture of salt and sand handy to put on steps or paths in icy weather.
- ❄ Keep simple cold, flu and sore throat remedies in the house.
- ❄ (Your pharmacist can make suggestions and can advise on how to manage minor illnesses)
- ❄ If you are invited to have a flu jab, be sure to follow this up.
- ❄ Order repeat prescriptions in plenty of time, particularly if bad weather is forecast.
- ❄ Keep basic food items in the cupboard or freezer in case it is too cold to go shopping.
- ❄ Unless you must go out in severe weather, stay at home.

Temporary General Waste Site

In this article, we normally send Gordon Campbell, Tenant Participation Officer to follow different Council employees for the day and let you know what their job is all about. On this occasion, we gave Gordon a slightly different task to carry out.

Read Gordon's latest report below:

As many of our readers will know, I generally follow a Council employee for the day. Due to the Coronavirus pandemic, I was asked if I would be willing to assist our Waste Management Team with the temporary general waste site at the Citadel Leisure Centre in Ayr in June just after the first National lockdown had taken place.

All Council employees who were not considered frontline staff were asked if they would be willing to assist in the essential roles during the outbreak. I wanted to help where I could and with my previous day in the life of experience, I was secretly hoping I would be asked to help on the bin collections.

The temporary waste site at the Citadel Leisure Centre was set up to help manage the demand for the recycling centre at Heathfield in Ayr. The recycling centre was closed during the initial lockdown and with people having more time on their hands they had been using the time to clear out cupboards, rooms, lofts and gardens along with other DIY projects.

It was great to be asked to assist with the operation of the site for a two-week period as I had been working from home since the beginning of the initial lockdown period. In my role as Tenant Participation Officer a lot of my time is normally spent working with tenants on projects engaging in group discussions on a face-to-face basis. With the introduction of the initial lockdown period and new coronavirus safety measures, I had to change the way we operated the Tenant Participation groups to online virtual meetings. It felt great to get back out engaging and speaking with customers in a face-to-face manner after not doing it for some time.

My job on the site was to assist colleagues from Waste Management with the overall operation of the site that included assisting with traffic management, engaging with customers waiting in the queue providing them with the guidelines, operating and safety procedures in place on the site, all while maintaining a two metre distance.

On the first morning of the site operation, I had to arrive early to meet my colleagues Ryan McKie, Craig Currie, Ryan Purewal & Alex

Nelson who I would be working with over the two-week period. We also had to go through the safety procedures and set up the site to make it ready for the first customer at 8am.

We were all expecting a long queue on the first morning with people eager to dispose of all the excess rubbish they had been collecting from their lockdown projects. To our surprise, we only had a small queue of 8 cars patiently waiting on us opening the site. We did have a steady stream of customers at most times throughout the day however the longest queue we had over the 2 week period was 12 cars waiting at one point to unload. I think the way the site was setup, for example, customers could pull up beside the bin lorry and unload their general waste straight from their vehicle. This made the difference and helped to keep our wait times and queue to a minimum.

Me operating the 'Crusher'

Customers appreciated the fact that it was a short queue with many expecting to wait a long time due to national press coverage of sites elsewhere in the country. We had many happy customers over the two-week period with lots of positive feedback submitted through the Council's 'listening to you' section on the Council's website. It was heart-warming to receive and read all the kind comments about the staff working on the site and how the Council had provided an excellent service.

Below is just one of the comments that the team received:

'Just a quick note to let you know that we had a fantastic experience with your staff and setup to dispose of our waste. The process was slick, professional and Covid friendly' - Andrew Love, Resident

We received many donations of biscuits & sweets, along with many people offering to go and pick up a coffee for us. Thankfully we were prepared with our flasks however, it was very kind to receive the offers.

Making sure the drivers know what to do

It was also so nice to receive all the donations with people extremely appreciative of the service being provided.

One surprise that really stood out was the very kind donation of the sweetie box donated by The Sweetie Guys - Lauchlan & Crawford Roarty. The boys aged 7 & 5 had been busy over the lockdown period helping to make up and deliver the Sweetie Boxes to customers locally with 25% of their profits being donated to Ayr Hospital. The idea came about after one of the boys broke his arm and received treatment in hospital during lockdown. They wanted to say thank you to hospital staff by raising funds. Their mum, Kirsty Roarty, was dropping off their rubbish at the site and the boys wanted to make our day by kindly donating a box to the team. It certainly did make the team's day along with all the other kind comments and generosity of customers.

Lauchlan & Crawford handing over the money raised and a sweetie box to the staff at University Hospital, Ayr.

Over the two weeks, we took it in turns to explain the setup to customers on arrival that only one car was able to unload at a time, and only one person was able to leave their vehicle to unload the rubbish. The other roles were to operate the crusher on the rear of the bin lorry that was used to collect the general waste and to check ID to ensure those disposing of rubbish were living in South Ayrshire.

I really enjoyed my time helping out at the temporary site. I am always happy to help where I can and it felt good being able to go out and assist customers during the pandemic. It was great working with the team set up to provide the service, with us all coming together from different teams within the Council.

I hope you have enjoyed reading about my time at the Temporary General Waste Site. I am already looking forward to my next adventure wherever that may be!

Gordon

Fixed Electrical Testing

Whilst the Covid-19 pandemic continues, the Council still have a legal duty to undertake safety and compliance works, ensuring that our properties remain safe for our tenants and families.

These compliance checks include:-

- 💡 Annual Gas Safety Checks
- 💡 6-monthly Sprinkler System checks
- 💡 5-yearly Electrical Safety Checks

In addition to this, the Scottish Government has introduced a new set of safety standards in relation to smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors in properties. These standards may require additional smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors to be fitted in your home.

Landlords are being expected to meet these standards by February/March 2022. Our Property Maintenance Team are carrying out these works as part of the Fixed Electrical Testing programme.

Any property that had been identified for internal modernisation work during 20-21, where works have now had to be postponed due to current Covid-19 restrictions, the Council have instructed James Frew Ltd to carry out Fixed Electrical Testing and install additional smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors where required.

If your home requires any of these safety checks or additional smoke alarms/carbon monoxide detectors, you will receive written notification. Any members of staff working within your property will follow the Government Covid-19 Guidelines to safeguard you and themselves whilst work is being carried out in your home.

Your safety is our priority so it is important that you provide access for these compliance works to take place.
